DEFINITION, SOURCES AND SIGNIFICANCE OF IDEOLOGY

LONG QUESTIONS

- Q.1 Explain the sources and significance of the ideology.(Ex. Qi. SWL-16, GRW-15, RWP 16,17)(K.B)
OR What are the sources of ideology and its significance?
OR Write a note on the sources of the ideology' and its significance.

Ans:

Ideology is generally defined as the cultural or social strategy that becomes the common goal of a nation. The effectiveness of any ideology depends on the sincerity, dedication, loyalty and commitment of the individuals. Ideology naturally affects the minds of individuals and as a result faith in eternal principles is strengthened. It creates a system of human life that includes beliefs and the purpose of life. Ideology brings any society in a way in which the beliefs, customs and religious matters of individuals are shared which are called the sources of ideology. The sources of the ideology are as follows:

1. Common Religion:

Religion is a unifying force for the Nations of the World. All nations are identified on the basis of their religions, Muslims and non-Muslims are separated from each other because their beliefs are different. Religion is not merely a set of prayers but it affects the entire social life of a nation.

Hindu Movements

In the nineteenth century, many Hindu movements such as the Arya Samaj and the Brahmo Samaj etc., began in the Indian subcontinent which were intended to propagate Hinduism and bring down Muslims.

Arya Samaj:

The founder of the Arya Samaj, Pandit Dayanand Saraswati, had crossed all the limits. He started a programme called Shuddhi, which was aimed at forcibly converting non-Hindus into Hindus (that is to clean them according to Hindu mind).

Brahmo Samaj:

Raja Ram Mohan Rai, the founder of Brahmo Samaj, also used to speak against Muslims out of Muslim hostility.

Era of Congress Government:

Congress Government (1937-39) reinforced this notion and it became difficult for the Muslims in the united India to 'maintain their religious identity.

2. Common Political Objectives:

When people have a common goal, they become united. For example the Muslims of South Asia had common political goals to achieve the Pakistan. It united them on the ideology of Pakistan. Many nations of the world fought for their independence because of common political goals.

Concept of Democracy:

With the arrival of the British, the concept of democracy emerged in the Indian subcontinent, in which Government representatives were to be elected by vote. The Muslims were in minority by population in the Indian subcontinent, therefore, the share of the Muslims in the government was small.

Political system:

The identity of the Muslims started to emerge due to the consciousness given by the new political system.

3. Common Educational Objectives:

Common educational objectives are also the source of a nation's ideology.

English Language:

After the occupation of the subcontinent, the British introduced a system of education in which the English language held the central position.

Reaction of Muslim Scholars:

The Muslim scholars reacted to it and declared that learning of English language was against Islam.

Rejection of the new educational system:

Most of the Muslims rejected the new system of education. It all happened on the basis of an ideology and that was the Ideology of Islam.

4. Common Economic Objectives:

Common economic objectives are also the source of a nation's ideology.

War of Independence:

After the War of Independence 1857, to gain the sympathy of the British, the Hindus succeeded in convincing them that the role of the Muslims in the War of Independence was greater, and that in the future too, the Muslims might try it again.

Attitude of the British:

Consequently, the attitude of the British became harsh towards the Muslims who continued to be economically oppressed and ignored.

Strength on Theory:

For all these reasons, the business and trade opportunities for Muslims diminished but they did not abandon their ideology.

5. Common Cultural Objectives:

Common cultural objectives, also give rise to a nation's ideology.

Official Language:

Urdu was the official language when the British occupied India. When the Hindus became more involved in British government, they tried to replace Urdu with Hindi as the official language.

Urdu Script:

Urdu was written in Arabic script, it was considered close to Islam and Muslims.

Hindi script:

Hindi was written in the Devanagari script, so Hindus started demanding Hindi as the official language instead of Urdu.

Maintaining of Identity:

Muslims could not read or write Hindi. This act of Hindus made the Muslims think that they would no longer be able to maintain their identity in the united India.

IMPORTANCE OF IDEOLOGY

The importance of ideology can be illustrated by the following points:

- Ideology reflects people's thinking. Because of it, nations seem alive.
- Ideology explains the national rights and duties of human beings together.
- Ideology is helpful in keeping the nation united. Ideology provides the power to face all kinds of difficulties to achieve the objectives.
- Ideology creates the spirit of struggle to achieve the objectives and ensures the achievement of the objectives.
- Ideology gives rise to revolution and new ways emerge because of it.

Existence of Ideology:

No theory comes into being immediately, unless some events are at work behind it. Ideology is usually created to eliminate deprivation in the backward people of the society. It can also be said that difficult situations and social pressures give rise to the vision and the troubled people in the society become its strength.

Achieving equal rights:

Just as black people in the United States began to fight for equal rights, so did their ideology of equal rights. Prolonged deprivation of basic human rights gave rise to a vision of equal rights for them.

Achieving social and political rights:

Similarly, when the Muslims of the Indian subcontinent began to struggle for their social and political rights, it was because of the cruel attitude of the British and the Hindus, which created a wave of freedom within the Muslims. The ideology for the separate homeland for the Muslims came into being.

Conclusion:

So, we can say that behind every ideology there are elements like history, traditions, customs, temperament, psychology and religion. These elements highlight the importance of any ideology. The ideology of Pakistan is based on the religion of Islam which guides Muslims in all spheres of life.

MEANINGS OF IDEOLOGY OF PAKISTAN

LONG QUESTIONS

Q.1 What is the meanings of the ideology of Pakistan? Write its definitions. (U.B+K.B)

Ans: MEANING OF IDEOLOGY OF PAKISTAN

The ideology of Pakistan stems from the zeal of the Muslim community in South Asia to maintain its uniqueness in Hindu society. Muslims believed that Islam and Hinduism were not just two religions, but two social norms that gave rise to two different cultures. There is no compatibility between the two. An in-depth study of the history of this land troves that the differences between Hindus and Muslims are not limited to the struggle or political supremacy but are also evident in the clash of two social orders. Due to these factors, the ideology of Pakistan was strengthened.

Existence of Pakistan

Quaid-e-Azam once said that the foundation of Pakistan was laid on that very day when the first non-Muslim was converted into a Muslim.

Basis of Ideology of Pakistan:

The Ideology of Pakistan refers to the consciousness of the Muslims in the historical perspective of the South Asian subcontinent that they were different from other nations on the basis of the Islamic way of life.

Strategy of Pakistan Ideology:

The "Ideology of Pakistan" was the process by which a particular ideology was founded or "Islam". The purpose of this clarification was to implement Islam as a cultural, political and economic system.

Establishment of Pakistan:

- Pakistan came into being under an ideology which is called Ideology of Pakistan.
- The Ideology of Pakistan is like soul in the body of Pakistan, without which, there can be no concept of the existence of Pakistan.
 - During the Pakistan Movement, the Muslims of India consciously struggled to establish an independent Muslim state under an ideology.

DEFINITION OF THE IDEOLOGY OF PAKISTAN

Definition of the Ideology of Pakistan is given as under:

Acquisition of separate territory:

The Ideology of Pakistan refers to the attainment of a separate land in which Muslims of the subcontinent can preserve Islamic values and ideals in the light of the Qur'an and Sunnah and spend their lives under the glorious principles of Islam.

Collective concept:

The overall concept of Pakistan Movement and the creation of Pakistan is called Ideology of Pakistan.

Theoretical Basis:

The Ideology of Pakistan is that ideological basis under which the Muslims of the subcontinent struggled for their identity, rights, separate homeland and national welfare.

Conclusion:

The ideology of Pakistan was a dynamic effort by which the Muslims of the subcontinent protected their religion, identity, rights and civilization and culture.

Islamic Values:

The Muslims of the subcontinent had decided at the time of demand for Pakistan that a society based on the golden principles of Islam be established, where Islamic values like justice, equality, freedom and tolerance would be promoted.

Basic human rights:

After the establishment of Pakistan, Quaid-e-Azam was asked why there was a demand for Pakistan as the Muslims had the freedom to worship according to their religion even without division of the subcontinent. He replied:

"Brotherhood, equality, and fraternity are the basic tenets of our religion, culture and civilization; we fought for the creation of Pakistan because there was a danger of the denial of these fundamental human rights."

Establishment of the ideal state:

According to Quaid-e-Azam Pakistan had to be a country where rights, human freedom, justice and tolerance could be practiced. Thus, Pakistan could become an example for other countries and societies, so that they too could follow its footsteps to become happy and prosperous. The Ideology of Pakistan was the basis of the establishment of a welfare and model state.

Muslim Reformers

The concept of two-nation theory had begun with the arrival of Muslims in the subcontinent. Then, on several occasions, the possibilities of clarification, evolution and consolidation of this theory developed.

Sir Syed Ahmad Khan:

Sir Syed Ahmad Khan explicitly declared in 1867 that the Hindus and the Muslims were two separate nations and could not be merged together.

Other Reformers:

In 1879, Maulana Jamal-ud-Din Afghani

In 1890 Maulana Abdul Halim Sharar

In 1928 Maulana Murtaza Ahmad Maekash talked of a separate state for the Muslims. These reformers spoke of the establishment of a separate state for the Muslims.

Allama Mohammad Iqbal:

Allama Muhammad Iqbal gave the concept of a separate state for the Muslims in his Allahabad address in 1930.

THE SOCIAL AND CULTURAL CONDITIONS OF THE MUSLIMS OF THE SUBCONTINENT

LONG QUESTIONS

Introduction:

Ideology of Pakistan calls for a particular lifestyle, civilization and culture. Undoubtedly, religion Islam has created a deep impact on the Muslim civilization and culture of the subcontinent. The Muslims of the subcontinent spoke many languages. Their cultures, traditions, races and social environment were different and their colours were not uniform.

Islam is the only power:

Religion Islam was the only force that moulded all Muslims into one nation.

Muslim identity:

According to Islam, Muslim is the brother of a Muslim and Muslims always identify themselves with their religion.

Muslim Nation:

Al Iama Muhammad Iqbal -Jj highlighted the importance of religious bonds stating that "Muslims are an Ummah because of the religion of Islam and their power potential depends on it. In his poetry, he presented the true concept of the basis of Muslim Ummah as follows:-

اپنی ملت پر قیاس اقوام مغرب سے نہ کر
خاص ہے ترکیب میں قوم رسول ہاشمی^{علیہ السلام}
ان کی جیعت کا ہے ملک و نب پر انحصار قوتِ مذہب سے معمم ہے جیعتِ تری

Judge not your nation on the criteria of western nations.

Special in composition is the Hashmi Rasool's nation. (عَلَيْهِ الْكَفَافُ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ وَأَصَحَّابِهِ وَسَلَامٌ)

Based on country and race is their organization.

The force of Deen stabilizes your organization.

Strong Intentions:

The combined power of the Congress and the English Government was hindering the strong intentions of Quaid-e-Azam and the All India Muslim League. Quaid-e-Azam wanted to free the Muslims from both of them.

Commitment of Muslims:

The numerical superiority of the Hindus and the immense power of the British government could not prevent Muslims from making Pakistan because Muslims were associated with Islam.

Protection of Muslims:

Quaid-e-Azam continued his efforts for the glory of Islam and protection of the Muslims, and even the stronger opposition could not stop him from this mission.

Concept of Separate Nationality:

The Muslim nation proved itself to be a strong and perfect nation under the leadership of its great leader and succeeded in achieving the concept of a separate nationality of Muslims through national unity. This concept was termed as Ideology of Pakistan.

Conclusion:

The ideology of Pakistan is the concept of an Islamic welfare state built on the principles of Islamic values. The establishment of this state was not just an idea but a strong Islamic civilization and culture behind it which led to the existence.

ELEMENTS OF THE IDEOLOGY OF PAKISTAN

LONG QUESTIONS

Q.1 Explain in detail the elements of the ideology of Pakistan. (Ex.2)(U.B+K.B)

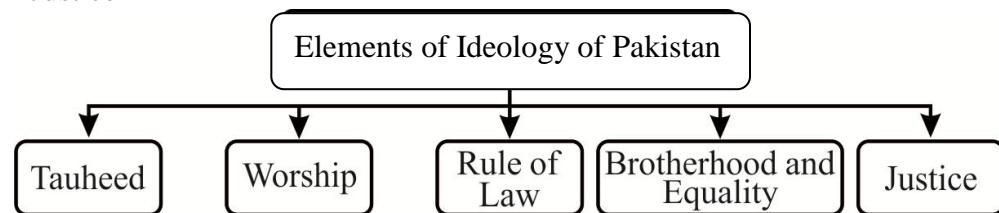

Evaluate the Islamic values that are the basis of the ideology of Pakistan.

Introduction:

Introduction: The Muslims of the Sub-continent got a separate homeland so that they might give practical shape to the final and absolute authority of Almighty Allah. The people might implement the absolute power of Almighty Allah and such a system was based upon the principles of the Holy Quran and the teachings of the Holy Prophet ﷺ. The Ideology of Pakistan is based on the Islamic philosophy of life. Beliefs, worships, rule of law, brotherhood, equality, justice and fairness are the elements of the Ideology of Pakistan. These elements of the ideology of Pakistan are as follows:

- Beliefs
- Worship
- Rule of law
- Brotherhood and equality
- Justice

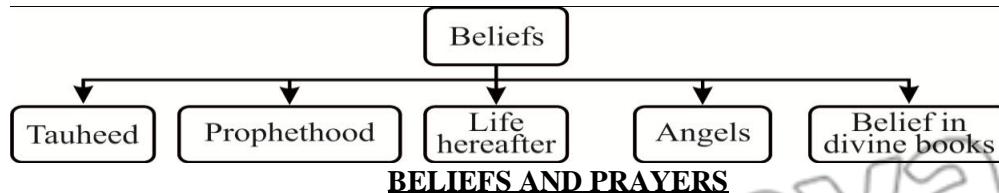

The details of these values is given below:

Beliefs

The great edifice of Islam is based on faith. If there is weakness or distortion in this foundation, then the existence of the great edifice of religion is in danger. That is why the Holy Prophet ﷺ spent most of his year in Makkah only in the struggle for reform Islam. Islam is basically the name of a collection of a few beliefs. A person who believes in beliefs with all his heart and soul and also affirms with his deeds is called a Muslim.

Emaan:

Beliefs include, Tauheed (Monotheism), Risalat (Prophethood), Akhirat (Hereafter), Angels and belief in Holy Books. This set of beliefs is called Faith. This set of beliefs is called Emaan.

Belief in Tauheed

Tauheed (Monotheism) means that Almighty Allah is the creator and the ruler of the entire universe. He is One and unique. He has no partner and nothing is beyond His knowledge.

Word of God:

In the Holy Qur'an, Allah says:

إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

“Allah hath power over all things.”

It means nothing is beyond His Power.

Human Status:

Allah Almighty has sent man as His vicegerent in this world, so Allah Says:

إِنَّمَا جَعَلَ فِي الْأَرْضِ خَلِيفَةً

Translation: “Indeed, I will make upon the earth a successive authority.”

According to this, man has the status of the vicegerent of God, so it is necessary for Muslims to follow the commands of God.

Absolute power:

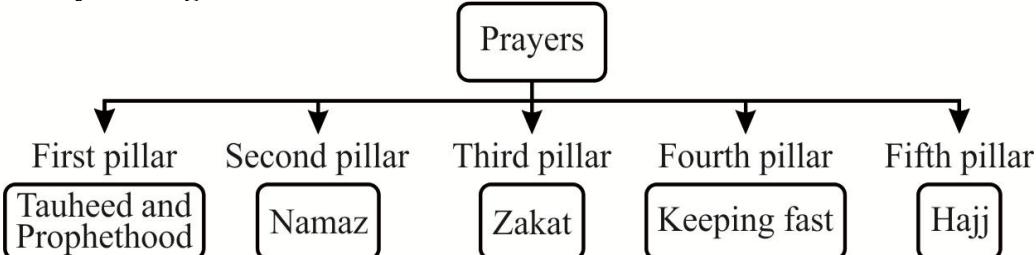

The status of man is the vice-regent of Almighty Allah. Therefore, it is essential for the Muslims to follow the commands of Almighty Allah. Therefore it is essential for the Muslims to follow the commands of Almighty Allah. The belief in the omnipotence of Almighty Allah subordination of man makes it clear that man is capable of the extent of his power but real power rests with Almighty Allah. Man should act according to his power and leave the result to Almighty Allah.

Belief in Prophethood:

Belief in the Risalat (Prophethood) means believing in all the Rasools (Prophets) (عَلِيِّمُ الْإِسْلَامِ). In order to enter the realm of Islam, it is essential to accept the Risalat whole heartedly and not to doubt it in any way. Believing in the Qur'an and the Risalat as the source of guidance and believing in Hazrat Muhammad (صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ) as the last Rasool and believing that no Rasool will come after him (خَاتَمُ النَّبِيِّنَ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ) is an essential part of believing in the Risalat and whoever denies it cannot be a Muslim.

PRAYERS (PILLARS OF ISLAM)

According to the Qur'an, worship is the real purpose for which man was created. Prophets were also sent into the world to invite man to worship God and to stay away from idolatry. Through this a mood of obedience and submission is formed in man.

First Pillar of Islam:

Belief in Tauheed and Risalat (Prophethood) is the first pillar of Islam.

Second Pillar:

The second pillar is Namaz (prayer). Almighty Allah has commanded prayer in many places in the Qur'an.

Perform the prayers on time:

It is obligatory to perform the prayers at the prescribed times. Almighty Allah has instructed in the Quran:

لَئِنِّي الصَّلَاةُ كَانَتْ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ كَيْفَيَةً مَوْفُورًا

Translation: "Verily, Prayer is obligatory for Muslims in accordance with the fixed timings." (Al-Nisa:103)

Establishing prayers:

Infect establishing prayer is an example of establishing the religion of Islam which is demonstrated every day. Such a system of Almighty Allah's worship should be established in the whole society.

Third Pillar

The third pillar of Islam is Zakat.

Economic Benefits of Zakat:

Zakat is the financial worship and a means of strengthening the economic system of Islam. Due to Zakat system, wealth remains in circulation rather than getting accumulated in a few hands and reaches the poor segment of society.

Fourth Pillar

Fourth pillar of Islam is Saum (Fasting). Like other acts of worship. Saum (Fasting) is the best expression of duty and is a means of intimacy between man and Almighty Allah.

Fifth Pillar

Hajj is the fifth pillar of Islam, which is obligatory for a man of means. The call of ﴿اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَتُبَاكِ﴾ (Almighty Allah I am present) on the occasion of Hajj is an example of unity and brotherhood of Muslims which is not found anywhere in the world.

RULE OF LAWSource of law:

The rule of law is an important virtue of the Islamic system. It is based on the idea that Almighty Allah is the source of law.

Basis of law:

The basis of law is the Holy Qur'an and Sunnah. Kings as well as slaves are equal before the law.

Mutual advice:

It can be said that there is a spirit of democracy in the Islamic system. Democracy has been sealed by binding the rulers to make decisions through mutual consultation. The condition is that all decisions should be made in the light of Qur'an and Sunnah.

EQUALITY AND BROTHERHOOD:

Brotherhood and equality are of special importance in Islamic society.

Mawakhat-e-Madina:

When the Islamic government was established in Madina, brotherhood and equality were ideal. Even today the Islamic society demands the same brotherhood and equality that was seen in Madina.

Indoctrination of human rights:

This principle was severely lacking before Islam and people were enemies of each other's lives but with the establishment of the state of Madina, the Holy Rasool ﷺ while observing the rights of the people urged the worshipers to show compassion to the orphans, widows and the needy. He ﷺ gave people the code of living so that people could live in love with each other and create an atmosphere of brotherhood and equality in society.

Zakat and Charity System:

Muhammad introduced the system of Zakat and Charity and declared usury to be haraam because in Islam there is no room for exploitation of others.

Principles of Muslim:

Brotherhood teaches that fraternal relations should be established so that no one's rights can be taken away and no one can oppress the weak.

The Holy Prophet has said:

"A Muslim is the brother of another Muslim. He does not cheat on him and does not betray him and does not backbite him."

Hatred and envy:

Muhammad taught to refrain from malice and envy. Therefore, Muslims should live in harmony and help each other.

Emphasis on equality:

In Islamic society, where brotherhood and fraternity have a place, equality has also been emphasized. In Iqbal's words:

ایک ہی صاف میں کھڑے ہو گے محمود و ایاز
نہ کوئی بندہ رہا اور نہ کوئی بندہ نواز

The concept of equality:

In Islam there is no concept of high and low classes. Islam has laid the foundation of a society in which everyone, rich or poor are equal. No one is superior to another.

Criteria of Virtue:

The Holy Rasool Hazrat Muhammad (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ وَسَلَّمَ) stated this fact in his last sermon as follows:-

"O people, surely your Lord (Allah Ta'ala) is One and your father (Hazrat Adam) is also one. Be aware, an Arab has no superiority over an Ajam (non-Arab) and an Ajam (non-Arab) has no superiority over an Arab; a white has no superiority over a black and a black has no superiority over a white; the standard of virtue is piety.

Islam and Equality:

Islam is the name of equality and no one is superior before Almighty Allah. If someone is great, he can be great because of good deeds. It may be noted that no one is superior in the Masjid (mosque). All stand behind the Imam and offer prayers. No one is superior to others in the sight of Almighty Allah.

Teaching of equality to the human race:

Almighty Allah, while teaching equality to the human race, has instructed in Surah Al-Hujurat as follows:-

بَلَىٰ إِنَّا لَهُمْ إِذَا حَشِّنَّا مِنْ ذَكَرِهِ أُتْتَىٰ وَجْهَنَّمَ شَعُورًا وَقَبْلَ أَنْ تَعْلَمُوا طَلْبًا أَكْرَمَنَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ الْأَنْعَمُ

Translation: "O, People! We created you from a male and a female, and made you into nations and tribes that you may know one another.

5. Justice and Equity

No society can develop without justice and equity, therefore, justice and equity demands that everyone in the society gets his due.

Justice based Society:

When there is a just society other ills of society will be fixed automatically because in this way, no one will be able to usurp the rights of others. No one will commit dishonesty or injustice from fear of punishment.

Atmosphere of justice:

Before dawn of Islam, the dishonest practice of not punishing the powerful and punishing the weak was common but after Islam, justice and equity prevailed. An atmosphere of justice was established in the society and justice became an important need in the Muslim society.

Need for justice:

Justice is needed in every sphere of life.

Judicial system responsibilities:

The responsibilities of the judicial system in relation to justice are as follows:

- It is the responsibility of the judicial system to make the implementation of justice possible.
- For this purpose, the independence of the courts is very important.
- There should be no political pressure on judges.
- The law applies equally to all.
- Rich or poor, the punishment should be according to the crime for all.

Disadvantages of abandoning justice:

The Holy Prophet (A) has said that a nation which abandons justice becomes doomed to destruction and ruin. An example of justice from the standard of beauty: The Holy Prophet has left many examples of justice which are a model for the world. Once a woman from the tribe of Banu Makhzoom stole and when she was recommended, he said:

"The nations before you, were destroyed because when an influential person committed a crime, he was not punished but when an ordinary person committed crime a limit was imposed on him. I swear by Almighty Allah that even if Fatima bint-e-Muhammad had stolen, I would have cut off her hand"

Criteria of Progress:

The importance of justice and equity cannot be denied because a society progresses by leaps and bounds when there is rule of law.

Outcome:

Undoubtedly, the ideology of Pakistan is based on the above mentioned Islamic values. Because the demand for a separate state in the subcontinent was made on the basis that Muslims could live according to their beliefs, worship, rule of law, brotherhood and equality and adherence to the principles of justice.

DETAILS OF THE ORIGIN AND EVOLUTION OF THE TWO-NATION THEORY REGARDING THE RELIGIOUS, CULTURAL, SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC DEPRIVATION OF THE MUSLIMS OF THE SUBCONTINENT

LONG QUESTIONS

- Q.1 Explain the Two Nation Theory. (Ex. Q. 6)(K.B)
 (LHR 2014,16,17) (DGK 2017) RWP 2017) (MTN 2017) (GRW 2013) (FSD 2016,17)

Ans: EXPLANATION OF TWO NATION THEORY

Background:

Every person who converted to Islam in the subcontinent associated himself with the Muslim society and state at the social and political level. In such a case, he would abandon his previous relationships and attach himself to a new social system. On this basis, with the passage of time, the Muslims of the subcontinent developed a distinct and unique temperament which was different from other nations of India in every respect. Based on this identity, two national ideologies emerged.

Two nation theory in historical context:

Two-Nation Theory implies that the Hindus and Muslims are the two largest nations in the subcontinent but these two nations have not been able to mix with each other despite living together for centuries.

Two-Nation Theory in the Subcontinent:

The separate identity of the Muslims is the basis of Two-Nation Theory. Pakistan was founded on the basis of Two-Nation Theory. The motto of the Two-Nation Theory was to establish an independent state of Muslims in India, in which they could lead their individual and collective lives according to Islamic principles.

THE EVOLUTION OF THE TWO-NATION THEORY

The phased evolution of the two-nation ideology is as follows:

TWO-NATION THEORY IN SUB-CONTINENT

Arrival of Muslims:

In the subcontinent, Two-Nation Theory began with the arrival of the Muslims and the conquest of Sindh by Muhammad bin Qasim. In 712, the young Arab commander Muhammad bin Qasim defeated Raja Dahir of Sindh. Some Arabs also came alongwith Muhammad bin Qasim for preaching of Islam and they settled permanently in Sindh and Multan. Muhammad bin Qasim's kindness, tolerance and justice impressed the locals so much that they considered him an avatar and deity. The preachers of Islam showed them the straight and true way of Islam and path of Tauheed and these people gladly entered into fold of Islam.

Ghaznavid rule:

After that, the Ghaznavid period began which covered the period 1003 AD to 1206 AD. In this period, the Persian language was introduced in the area of present-day Pakistan and the impact of Islamic civilization deepened.

Kingdom of Delhi:

In 1206, Qutbuddin Aibak founded the Delhi Empire. The reign of the Sultanate of Delhi lasted till 1526 in which the following families ruled:

- Family of Ghulaman
- Family of Khilji
- Family of Tughlaq
- Family of Sadat
- Family of Lodhi

Mughal rule:

In 1526, Zaheer-ud-Din Babar founded the Mughal Empire in Delhi which lasted till 1857. During the Mughal rule, the following famous rulers were:

- Babur
- Humayun
- Great Akbar
- Jahangir
- Shahjahan
- Aurangzeb

The last Mughal ruler:

The last Mughal ruler, Bahadur Shah Zafar, was imprisoned by the British in Rangoon (Myanmar) after his defeat in the War of Independence of 1857. Where he later died and was buried there.

SIR SYED AHMAD KHAN AND TWO-NATION THEORY

Sir Syed Ahmed Khan was born in 1817. Initially, Sir Syed Ahmed Khan was a supporter of the United Nation. After the War of Independence of 1857, the Hindus became closer to the British. Can Muslims a separate nation: The first person to declare Muslims a separate nation after the British occupation of India was Sir Syed Ahmed Khan.

Urdu-Hindi Controversy:

In 1867, on the occasion of the Urdu-Hindi conflict in Banaras, he declared that Muslims and Hindus were separate nations.

M-A-O. School and College:

After the Urdu-Hindi conflict, he began the struggle for the advancement of Muslims in the field of education and politics. In this regard, the establishment of M A O School and College was an important step for educational development.

Protection of political rights:

In 1885, Sir Syed Ahmad Khan protected the political rights of Muslims by barring them from joining the political party, the Congress.

Muhammadan Educational Conference:

Sir Syed Ahmad Khan paved the way for the political development of Muslims by providing a platform for the Muhammadan Educational Conference.

Death:

Sir Syed Ahmad Khan died in 1898.

CH. REHMAT ALI AND TWO-NATION THEORY

Chaudhry Rahmat Ali was born in 1897. He was educated at Islamiyah College, Lahore. Chaudhry Rahmat Ali was a renowned student of Islamia College Lahore. In January 1931, he entered Cambridge College for higher education in law.

National Movement:

In 1933, he founded the Pakistan National Movement in London.

Released a Pamphlet:

On January 28, 1933, he released a four-page pamphlet entitled "Now or Never", which proved to be a strong support for Pakistan movement.

Familiarity with the "word Pakistan":

Through this pamphlet, Muslims of the subcontinent as well as other nations became familiar with the word "Pakistan".

Explanation of two nation theory:

Chaudhry Rahmat Ali, while explaining the Two Nation Theory said: "There are many nations in the subcontinent. Among them, the two major nations are the Hindu and the Muslim, who have not been able to mix with each other despite living together for centuries. Their basic principles and ways of living are so different from each other that despite hundreds of years of neighborliness under the shadow of a government, the concept of a common nationality could not develop between them.

Outcome:

The two nation theory ignited political fervor in the Muslims and they got a leadership that ignited the independence movement. On the basis of this two nation theory, India was divided. Top leaders of Pakistan Movement consistently supported the two nation theory and laid the foundation of a separate state of Pakistan.

Introduction of Allama Iqbal:

He was born on November 9, 1877 in Sialkot. He awakened the Muslims of the subcontinent through poetry. He presented the concept of Pakistan that is why you are called the artist of Pakistan.

Ideology:

The word "Nazaria" is called ideology in English. "Ideology refers to a code or program based on philosophy and thought and a plan for various aspects of human life, such as political, social and cultural issues."

Ideology of Pakistan:

Ideology of Pakistan is the name of creating a society based on the principles of Quran and Sunnah. The ideology of Pakistan is the name of the establishment of a state where the welfare of the people is taken care of.

The Ideology of Pakistan and Allama Iqbal:

In the beginning he was also a supporter of the Hindu- Muslim unity, but soon he orthogonal and biased attitude of the Hindus forced him to think, that he should demand a separate slate. The details of Allama Iqbal's instructions regarding the ideology of Pakistan are as follows:

Awareness through Poetry:

Allama Muhammad Iqbal was one of those Muslim leaders of the subcontinent, who gave the concept of a separate homeland to the Muslims and awakened them through his poetry.

Muslim Millat:

Allama Iqbal emphasized on religious grounds and said that Muslims are one nation because of Islam and their strength depends on Islam. This is how he presented the real concept of the basis of the Muslim nation in his poems

اپنی لملت پر قیاس اقوام مغرب سے نہ کر
اُن کی بجیعت کا سے ملک و نسب یہ انھار

Allahabad Address:

In his Allahabad Address of 1930, he forcefully pleaded for a separate state where Muslims could lead their lives in accordance with their religion and culture. In his address he said:-

"The formation of a Muslim state appears to me to be the final destiny of the Muslims, at least of North-West India. If we wish to keep Islam alive as cultural force in the country, it is imperative that it should establish its central authority in a specific territory. I, therefore, demand the formation of a consolidated Muslim State in the best interests of Islam in India."

Separate Nation Status:

As two separate representative nations were living together in the subcontinent, therefore, Allama Muhammad Iqbal wished to promote the Muslims as a great and distinct nation. He thought that to safeguard the political, social and economic rights of the Muslims it was essential to have a separate state for them.
